PETERBURG, September 7, 1885.
The sound of drum and fife, the sound of drum and fife, the said of soldiery, the whoop of the said boy—in fact, every concomitant a gala-day with the colored brethe-bas enlivered our streets to-day d given a bustling, noisy turn to this seally staid old city. This is the co-red brother's day. He is happy in the wavery of martial attire.

Shortly after neon to-day the visiting iddiery marched up Sycumore street to be conti-house, where they were admended by Hon. T. J. Jarratt, the syor of this city. The excellent presutions which were adopted by the power insured an orderly and satisfactory rangement of the troops upon the burshouse Square, and there was not litch in the programme. Mayor Jaratteongratulated the soldiers upon their sartial appearance; extended them a aticongratulated the soldiers upon their artial appearance; extended them a sarty welcome to the city, and urged on them the necessity of maintaining derand military discipline. His speech as well received. At its conclusion to seldiers formed into line and marched Jarratt's Hotel, where they were wen a lunch. After a parade through the principal streets of the city the soliers were marched to West-End Park, there they gave the regimental and here they gave the regimental and uppany drill most creditably. There are some eight or nine companies in at, and their discipline and bearing ne, and their discipline and correre excellent.

Rev. Giles B. Cook, rector of St.

Rephen's Episcopal church, in this city, rho has accepted a call to a church in faryland, was, with the late Dr. Alex.

Weddell, one of the founders of the Church work among the colored people here, and for years past his whole time has been devoted to that work. He has accomplished a great deal, and his loss to the Church in Virginia, in this respect, will be seriously felt. He has built a fine church and established a t which, under the supervision of a corps of experienced teachers, many colored youths have been educated. Hishop Whittle felt great interest in this work, and always spoke with satisfac-tion of this church and the hearty spirit shown by the colored people in their worship.

Gratifying reports continue to be received of the increasing popularity of the Democratic ticket in this section.

It is learned that in many localities the colored vote will be to a considerable extent divided in this election. Work and organization and good speaking will accomplish much, and we hope to have all these. ROBIN ADAIR.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

SEPTEMBER 7, 1885.

Cards are out announcing the marriage this morning, at the residence of the bride's father, A. R. Blakey, Esq., of Miss Mary Elizabeth Blakey to William H. Echols, Jr., of Colorado. They left on the east-bound morning train for their future home in the Centennial State. Mr. Echols was formerly a student at the University of Virginia, where he was graduated as an engineer. He has been pursuing his profession for several years past in southern States, and has finally settled in Colorado, where he is prospering. Both bride and groom bear with them the best wishes of many friends.

The ball entered Hodnett's side about the short ribs and passing out near the spine. Mathews ran through the town, leaped on his horse, and fied the country. The excitement in town is supreme.
